

4 STAR GERMAN HOTEL ATTRACTS SPA GUESTS FROM ACROSS EUROPE WITH UNIQUE ACTIVITIES

Landhotel Birkenhof is a four star hotel located in South Eastern Germany close to the Czech border. Situated on a hill overlooking the upper palatinate lake district amongst flowering meadows and deep forest, the resort offers 5 restaurants, including fine dining, a cosy country style eatery, chic piano bar and a cocktail bar. The resorts busy spa activities include a steam sauna, ice room, Finnish sauna, infrared cabin, whirlpool, indoor and outdoor pools, massage rooms, body treatment services and beauty treatment. Customers can also enjoy Yoga, Pilates and use of treadmills and cross-trainers. The resort also has 13 Golf courses nearby – the main sport that guests with to play during their stay. To enhance the experience, a Sports Coach Golf Simulator has been installed to entertain golfers by giving them the opportunity to play realistic golf courses from around the world. An in house PGA professional offers lessons to improve player technique and enhance confidence when playing on local championship courses. The resort has noticed a significant increase in bookings since commissioning the Golf Simulator technology.

